President's Comments - Andrea S

Good evening everyone. I am really looking forward to this meeting's guest speakers. And in other news, we have received an email from Terry Rowland (T-Row Studios). She is planning a teaching tour in the Okanagan this fall. She already has three guilds signed up and will be splitting her travel costs between all the groups that take a class from her. If Sagebrush wants to tag onto this trip, the date that is available to us is Tuesday, September 30th.. Several of us attended classes or lectures by Terry Rowland at Quilt Canada in Edmonton and she is very good. I will be asking at the meeting if there are one or two people who would be interested in taking on the job of organizing this workshop. I feel confident that if you take this on, you will have no problem filling the class. Please think about volunteering and let me know at the meeting, or email me at aschafthuisen@gmail.com to let me know of your interest in coordinating this workshop. The workshop I believe could be chosen from Terry's current offerings, she has three pages of class offerings. I will bring forward the course offerings along in a separate email.
